NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION

JUNE 29, 2007

The NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION is an opportunity for First Nations and Canadians to stand together in a spirit of unity to support a better life for all First Nations peoples. Let us stand together to put an end to First Nations poverty as the greatest social injustice in Canada. Together, we can demonstrate that the relationship between First Nations and Canadians is based on principles of RESPECT, DIGNITY and FAIRNESS.

On June 29th, National Chief Phil Fontaine will give voice to First Nations CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND ELDERS – who will be leading our March of Solidarity.

The March will start at 12:00 Noon

on

Friday, June 29th

from

Ottawa City Hall (Festival Plaza) at 110 Laurier Avenue West to Victoria Island, traditional land of the Algonquin Nation.

Action is required now to secure a better, brighter and just future for First Nations children and youth, and honor the wisdom of our Elders. The First Nations Plan is REASONABLE, ACHIEVABLE and NECESSARY for a productive and competitive Canada.

The Assembly of First Nations is the national organization representing First Nations citizens in Canada of all ages, gender and places of residence.
