Dear Friends,

The Assembly of First Nations will be holding their annual Golf Fundraiser Tournament on Monday, June 6, 2016. This year the event is being held at Clublinks' Club de Golf Hautes Plaines located in Gatineau, Quebec.

There are a varied range of participants that attend this event. Participation usually consists of staff, government representatives, Chiefs, national aboriginal organizations, the business community and area Anishinabek.

We are hoping for your assistance to make this day memorable for all participants attending this year's event.

The Assembly of First Nations is actively seeking sponsors for the Golf Day. There are a variety of sponsors needed and perhaps you may decide on becoming one of them.

You will find attached information related to each of the sponsorship opportunities. Whether or not you decide on becoming a sponsor for this event your attendance is more than welcome.

Registration for the event is $150.00 per golfer. Please note that there is limited availability and spots will be given on a first come basis.

The registration fee includes: A welcome gift, box lunch, golf cart, dinner, refreshments and prizes.

This will truly be a memorable event and your participation in our fundraising efforts by your sponsorship or attendance is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Allison Daniels
Assembly of First Nations
