TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION COMMISSION'S 94 CALLS TO ACTION

OVERVIEW

In its final report the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) called on governments, educational and religious institutions, civil society groups and all Canadians to take action on the 94 Calls to Action (CTA).

Of the 94 CTA's, 46 require a direct response from the Government of Canada, 30 are shared by federal, provincial, territorial, municipal and Indigenous governments, and the remainder are the responsibility of other organizations.

To fulfill CTA #53, an Interim Board was created in December 2017 to establish a National Council for Reconciliation (NCR). On June 12, 2018, the Interim Board, chaired by Grand Chief Wilton Littlechild, recommended an independent, multigenerational institution to monitor, evaluate and report on reconciliation and act as a catalyst for innovative thought, dialogue and action. This institute would be financially independent and separate from the Government and would be governed by a Board of Directors and supported by an Executive Director and staff.

UPDATE

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) provided preliminary comments to the Interim Board on the structure of the NCR prior to the release of the June 2018 report. The AFN suggested the voices of the survivors must be reflected in the NCR's work, and that the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) should be the framework for the NCR to measure government commitments.

The AFN is working with First Nations leadership and technicians, in partnership with the Government of Canada, to co-develop initiatives that address the Calls to Action. This includes reforms to First Nations Child Welfare, the creation of Indigenous Languages Legislation, amendments to the Citizenship Guide and the Oath of Citizenship.

NEXT STEPS

The AFN will continue to advocate for concrete actions to address the Calls to Action and will report on progress to the AFN Executive Committee and Chiefs-in-Assembly. As per Resolution 01/2015, Support for the Full

On May 3, 2018, Crown-Indigenous Relations launched a progress report on a government website. There have been some significant commitments from Canada in areas such as child welfare and language revitalization. The AFN is currently engaged in advancing 33 of the 94 Calls to Action. The AFN will continue to monitor progress and advocate for full and meaningful implementation of all the Calls to Action. Commitments and action are needed particularly in the areas of justice, equity in the legal system and missing children.
