2ND NATIONAL CLIMATE GATHERING

Preserving our Earth, Land and Water for Future Generations

Fredericton, New Brunswick
September 27 to 29, 2022

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) is hosting its 2nd National Climate Gathering on September 27 to 29, 2022 at the Fredericton Convention Centre in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

The Climate Gathering will bring together First Nations experts, leadership, youth, women, Elders, Knowledge Keepers and professionals from coast to coast to work on the most urgent issue of our time: the climate crisis. It will offer an opportunity to explore solutions that First Nations are advancing in the face of rapid change at local, regional, national and international levels. For First Nations, a healthy environment connects to everything – our health, well-being, cultures, languages, water, food security and housing, among other things.

Details, including information on the upcoming Call for Presentations, are available in the coming weeks at www.afn.ca.
